

WELCOME THE CHILD

By LOUISE Hay

Put your hand over your heart. Keep your eyes closed. Allow yourself not only to see your inner child but to be that child.

And let my voice be your family as I say to you. (pause)___ We're so glad you came.

We've been waiting for you.

We wanted you sooo much, (pause)___ to be a part of our Family.

You're sooo important to us.

We're so glad you're a little boy.

We're so glad you're a little girl.

We love your uniqueness and your specialness.

We want to help you grow up to be all that you can be. You don't have to be like us. You can be yourself.

You're sooo Beautiful.

Sooo Bright.

You're so creative.

It gives us such joy to have you here.

We love you more than anything in the whole world.

We thank you for choosing our family.
